

ESAFETY AND ASSOCIATED ISSUES POLICY

Date Implemented: June 2015

Review Date: June 2018

Mobile phone and electronic devices policy

Mobile phones and, in particular, the new generation of smart phones, such as the iPhone, now include many additional functions such as an integrated camera, video recording capability, instant messaging, mobile office applications and mobile access to the internet. These allow immediate access to email, searching for information on the internet and other functions such as access to social networking sites e.g. Facebook, twitter and blogging sites.

For many young people today the ownership of a mobile phone is considered a necessary and vital part of their social life. When used creatively and responsibly the smart phone has great potential to support a pupil's learning experiences.

Digitech students are expected to have their mobile phone on 'Silent' at the bottom of their bags and not visible at all during the school day. If visible a member of staff can confiscate the mobile and follow the procedure below.

Parents and pupils should be clear that misuse of mobile phones will not be tolerated.

'Misuse' will be at the discretion of the Principal.

Dealing with breaches

Misuse of the mobile phone will be dealt with using the same principles set out in the school behaviour policy, with the response being proportionate to the severity of the misuse.

Pupils are aware that serious misuse may lead to the confiscation of their mobile phone leading to communication with parents and the imposition of other sanctions up to and including exclusion from school. If the offence is serious it will be reported to the Police.

The correct procedure for mobile phone confiscation is as follows:

1. A staff member places the mobile phone in a designated 'Mobile' bag.
2. Takes the phone to Reception as soon as possible
3. Reception will store the phone in a locked safe location
4. Parents will be contacted to come into school to retrieve the mobile phone at their earliest convenience.

Where it is deemed necessary to examine the contents of a mobile phone this will be done by a designated member of staff.

The action will be properly recorded in case it later becomes evidence of criminal activity. The record will include the time, who was present and what is found.

Rules for the Acceptable Use of a mobile phone in school by pupils

Pupils are allowed to bring mobile phones into school. If they choose to do so it is on the understanding that they agree with the following limitations on its use, namely:

- Mobile phones must be switched off or on “Silent’ in all classes, corridors and other areas during the Whole school day.
- The phone must be kept out of sight at all times.
- No pupil may take a mobile phone into a room or other area where examinations are being held.
- The security of phone will remain the pupil’s responsibility in all lessons including PE/gym lessons (PE staff will not look after any mobile phones).
- If asked to do so, content on the phone (e.g. messages, emails, pictures, videos, sound files) will be shown to a teacher

Unacceptable use

The school will consider any of the following to be unacceptable use of the mobile phone and a serious breach of the school’s behaviour policy resulting in sanctions being taken.

- Photographing or filming staff or other pupils without their knowledge or permission
- Photographing or filming in toilets, changing rooms and similar areas
- Bullying, harassing or intimidating staff or pupils by the use of text, email or multimedia messaging, sending inappropriate messages or posts to social networking or blogging sites
- Refusing to switch a phone off or handing over the phone at the request of a member of staff
- Using the mobile phone outside school hours to intimidate or upset staff and pupils will be considered a breach of these guidelines in the same way as unacceptable use which takes place in school time
- Using a mobile phone outside school hours in such a way that it undermines the stability of the school and compromises its ability to fulfil the stated aim of providing ‘a clear moral and ethical lead’.

Sanctions

Pupils and parents are notified that appropriate action will be taken against those who are in breach of the acceptable use guidelines, following the schools behaviour policy.

In addition:

- Pupils and their parents should be very clear that the school is within its rights to confiscate the phone where the guidelines have been breached.
Using the mobile phone outside school hours to intimidate or upset staff and pupils or undermine the stability of the school in any way will be considered a breach of these guidelines in the same way as unacceptable use which takes place in school time.

- Pupils should be aware that the police will be informed if there is a serious misuse of the mobile phone where criminal activity is suspected
- If a pupil commits an act which causes serious harassment, alarm or distress to another pupil or member of staff the ultimate sanction may be permanent exclusion. School will consider the impact on the victim of the act in deciding the sanction.

Confiscation procedure

The confiscation will be recorded in the school behaviour log for monitoring purposes

School will ensure that confiscated equipment is stored in such a way that it is returned to the correct person

In the case of repeated or serious misuse the phone will only be returned to a parent/carer who will be required to visit the school by appointment to collect the phone.

Where a pupil persistently breaches the expectations, following a clear warning, the Principal may impose an outright ban from bringing a mobile phone to school. This may be a fixed period or permanent ban.

Where the phone has been used for an unacceptable purpose

- A designated staff member will have the right to view files stored in confiscated equipment and if necessary seek the cooperation of parents in deleting any files which are in clear breach of these guidelines unless they are being preserved as evidence.
- If required evidence of the offence or suspected offence will be preserved, preferably by confiscation of the device and keeping it secure or by taking photographs of the screen
- School will consider whether an incident should be reported to the safeguarding board.
- The designated staff member should monitor repeat offences to see if there is any pattern in the perpetrator or the victim which needs further investigation.

Appendix 2 - Legal context

Common Offences Related to the Misuse of Mobile Telephones

The key to both offences below is that the message/picture/video is actually SENT . (If it is only stored on a device the offence is not complete.)

1. Malicious Communications Act (1988)

It is an offence to send an indecent, grossly offensive or threatening letter, electronic communication or other article to another person with the intention that it should cause them distress or anxiety

2. Communications Act (2003)

Section 127 covers all forms of public communications

127 (1) a person is guilty of an offence if they-

a) send by means of a public electronic communications network a message or other matter that is grossly offensive or of an indecent, obscene or menacing character; or (b) causes any such message or matter to be so sent.

127 (2) A person is guilty of an offence if, for the purpose of causing annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety to another, they –

(a) send by means of a public electronic communications network, a message that they know to be false,

(b) causes such a message to be sent; or

(c) persistently makes use of a public electronic communications network

Appendix 3 - Police response to an incident in school

Extract from the Home Office guidance on the action police should take if a crime may have occurred in school.

In order to sustain the disciplinary authority of schools, this guidance clarifies the general principles of NCRS as they apply specifically to incidents on school premises. When police have reported to them an incident which took place on school premises, including those witnessed by, or reported directly to, officers working in the school, which they would normally record as a notifiable offence will, in the first instance, invite the victim or the person acting on their behalf to report the matter to the head teacher to be dealt with under normal school discipline procedures. Such reports should be recorded as an incident only, until or unless:-

- (a) they judge it to be a serious incident as defined below; [see full document]
- (b) having brought the matter to the attention of the school in line with good practice (see references to guidance papers below), they receive a formal request from the school to create a crime record; or
- (c) the child, parent or guardian or the child's representative asks the police to create a crime record.

Appendix 4 – sources of help

Resources

Resources are available to support teachers, parents and pupils to promote the safe use of mobile phones and other technologies both in school and at home. Below is a note of the resources available and a short description of what each one contains. These resources have been drawn from a variety of sources, including the Mobile Network Organisations.

The O2 Nuisance Call Bureau provide practical help and advice to schools – whether they're having serious problems relating to bullying on mobile phones, nuisance calls or texts, happy slapping, or any other issues. Safeguarding concerns which may be raised by mobile phone use in school

Looked after pupils

There may be a safeguarding concern if a LAC, who has limited contact, or supervised- only contact with a parent, suddenly acquires a mobile phone as this could have been provided by the parent to maintain contact. This should be discussed with the designated teacher for LAC in school.

Young carers

Some young carers only feel able to attend school because their mobile phone enables easy access with the person they care for and may react strongly to a ban on phones or restrictions on their use. This will need to be treated sensitively by the school.

Child sexual exploitation (CSE)

A feature of some of the recent cases where teenage girls have been groomed for sex has been giving them expensive phones as a gift. The unexpected acquisition of an expensive mobile phone by girls who are unlikely to be able to afford one themselves should trigger a safeguarding concern.

The same approach is often used to draw children into selling drugs.
